High Court Suspects Deputy of Trading With the Enemy

PARIS, Sept. 18 .- The Procurator General of the Appeal Courts has addressed a communication to Parliament asking for the suspension of im munity in the case of Deputy Louis Turmel. The Procurator General points out that Deputy Turmel gave three different explanations concerning the origin of the money found in his locker, and further remarked that Magistrate Gilbert, charged with investigation of the case, twice served a subpæns on Turmel yesterday, but the latter ignored the summons "under circumstances from which it is permissible to presume that Turmel's dealings in Switzerland, given by him as the source whence he drew the m ney that was found, were of fraudent nature, coming under the law shibiting French citizens carrying

Ishii Sees Draft Camp

Japanese Mission Visits Cantonment at Ayer, Mass.

BOSTON, Sept. 19. - The Japanese mission to-day saw an American army in the making. As the final event of their New England tour they motored through forty miles of peaceful coun-tryside to the National Army canton-ment at Aver.

On the road to the camp recruits trudged along to the camp recruits trudged along with their suitcases, swinging their hats and cheering loudly as they caught sight of the long column of automobiles marked with the banner of the Rising Sun of Japan. The military memoers of the mission commented on the good spirits of the men just called from their homes.

A troop of regular cavairy clattered over the road ahead of the Japanese party to the headquarters of Major General Harry F. Hodges. There the commander of the New 76th Division led Viscount Ishii, head of the misled Viscount Isbii, head of the mis-sion, and Ambassador Sato to his car, and escorted them on a tour of the ramp.

The visitors showed the keenest inerest in the great aumber of comfrigerating plant. They eyed with professional approval the groups of tanned, well set up young soldiers, who stood at salute, and noted the remarkable improvement two weeks of training had wrought in these men as compared with the "rookles" who were arriving to do.

arriving to-day.

Part of the run to the camp was over the route taken by Paul Revere on his memorable ride and over the road followed by the British troops as they re-treated before the farmers of Concord,

Lexington and surrounding towns.
At Lexington Green, where the thin line of Minute Men had been drawn up, the party stopped while Viscount Ishii the party stopped while Viscount Ishii ald a wreath on the monument erected in 1779 to those who fell in America's first battle for freedom. Then, as in the ceremony of paying tribute at the tomb of Commodore Perry at Newport last Sunday, Viscount Ishii retired a few paces and made the profound Japanese obeisance in memory of dead heroes. Each member of the mission followed with the same salute.

DUNAJEC

Since the events of the past six months in Russia have served to change the entire perspectives of the world, the events of 1915 take on a new value.

Waterloo of The Romanoffs

The Dunajec Mr. Frank H. Simonds places with Verdun and the Marne in the great struggles of the World War. Unlike Verdun and the Marne, however, it is little written about.

A year ago Mr. Simonds reviewed the Marne. In next Sunday's Tribune in his masterly fashion he reviews Russia's place in the war and gives the reasons why we are facing the possibility of her participation being over.
